Foreword

In 1981 the late Kathleen Margaret Shelly Le Mare (K) and Hilda Margaret Le Mare (Margaret) visited Spitalfields and later began to prepare a family tree, working from the history of the family written by Richard Le Mare in 1889, and from the writings of Joseph Philip Consterdine of 1921. K and Margaret also wrote to all Le Mares who were listed in the UK telephone directories. In 1982 they organized a gathering of Le Mares at Banbury. This was followed by another at Banbury organized by Robert Gordon Le Mare and Margaret in 1984. In 1990 and 1995 Robert organized further gatherings; Philip André Le Mare organized a gathering at Adderbury in 2000. These gatherings were well attended and many family records were displayed.

After K died I inherited K's data and in 1988 began to assemble the genealogical and biographical information in a Shareware computer programme entitled "Brother's Keeper". This enabled production of the reports which formed the major parts of a booklet on the history of the family, offered to family members at the gathering in 1995. Since then further data has been added and is in a website (http://www.lemare.org/) developed by Timothy John Le Mare.

In addition to the data assembled by K, I found further information in the Corporation of London Records Office, the City of London Guildhall and elsewhere, including the Indenture of Apprenticeship of Samuel Le Mare, who was the first of the family named by Joseph Consterdine, and this gave the name of Samuel's father, Peter. At that time the Weavers' Company used the English form of the name but the French Church used the French form.

The account of the family begins with Peter or Pierre. However, there is much information on Le Maires who could not be linked to Pierre of our family; they are reported separately as nine families, including a brief account of Isaac Le Maire whose name was given to the Le Maire Strait in South America. Subsequent sections contain sundry records of our family. The writings of Joseph Consterdine, which give much detail of the family of Ebenezer Robert Le Mare, are held by John Sutton Le Mare. John Consterdine's history of the family is presented in the web account.

In preparing a family history the dates of birth, marriage and death are necessary but the major interest lies in activities of our forebears and the social history they represent, much of which is presented.

Structure of the History

Numbers marked # against a name identify the individual in the genealogy programme; they are useful in the History to distinguish between individuals with the same name but this distinction may also be made by quoting their dates. Within the History many individuals have an Arabic numeral immediately to the left of their names; this indicates that there is more information at the same number on the extreme left of a page in the next generation. Roman numerals indicate the order of children in a family. To find a name use the index or put the name into 'Find' in your computer.
Generation one

1. Pierre Le Maire #190, b. ca 1667-1674,1 baptized 1667 or 1674 in French Church Threadneedle Street,2 occupation Weaver.

   Samuel Le Mare’s (#66) indenture in the CLRO describes him as the son of Peter Le Mare of Spittle Fields, Weaver. Extracts from the Court Books of the Weavers’ Company of London by Waller (Hug. Soc. Publns Quarto Series Vol 33 1931) have several references to Peter Le Mare or Le Maire:

   p25 Peter Le Maire, having lived here 15 years and used the weaving trade admitted a foreign master - £5 16 Nov 1668. (Thus he arrived in 1653). p26 Matthew Delacourt attested by Peter Lemare 30 Nov 1668.
   p27 Gabriel Durand appr. to Peter Lemaire 18 Jan 1669.
   p43 Peter Lemare, who served in Holland, is attested by James Tenell, for. w. (weaver), and was adm. a for. j. (journeyman) 10 May 1675. (Hence this is probably not the Peter Le Maire mentioned on p25).
   p47. John Manoury, served at Amsterdam, attested by Peter Lemare, adm. for. j. 11s. 10d. 18 June 1677.

   Notes provided by Robin Gwynn, Napier, NZ, 21 Feb 1999:   G.B.Beeman MSS VII, 6(a), in the Huguenot Society Library, of material held by Lambeth Palace Library: 1100 Accounts of several sums of money received from Archbishop Thomas Tenison, and how the same was distributed among distressed weavers of Spitalfields 1709: No 71 Peter Le Maire, weaver, against ye ? & ? in Flower and Dean St, Spittlefields, a wife & 7 children, very poor. In bread and money … 5/-.

   See also information on Jean (#192) and Samuel (#66), sons of Pierre (#190), who were born in Dean and Flower Street in 1701 and 1703 respectively. The two illegible words marked ? Above may refer to an inn or public house.

   Flower and Dean Street is so called because it was built in 1650s by John Flower and Gowen Deane, Whitechapel bricklayers, on land belonging to the Fossan brothers. The names are sometimes interchanged and spelt in various ways in the records. Fashion Street takes its name from a corruption of Fossan; the street was built in 1650s on ground belonging to Thomas Fossan, citizen and skinner, and Lewis Fossan, citizen and goldsmith. (Information from The Streets of London - a dictionary of the names and their origins by S. Fairfield: London, Macmillan 1983).

   The Registers of the French Church Threadneedle Street Vol 2 of Hug Soc Publns:
   p185d Baptism Le Maire, Pierre, fils de Pierre le M et de Madelaine Gellée, sa femme 2 Juin 1667.
   p193a Le Maire, Jean, fils de Pierre leM et Madelayne, sa femme 7 Nov 1669.
   Possibly Peter LeMaire (#190) was the Pierre referred to above on p185 of Hug Soc Publns vol 2. When this man entered the Weavers’ Company is uncertain, possibly as a foreign master on 16 Nov 1668 (p25 of Hug. Soc. Pub. Quarto Ser.Vol 33) or on 10 May 1675 as a foreign journeyman having served in Holland (ibid. p43). However, this seems inconsistent with the information provided by Robin Gwynn. Or Pierre and Madelaine may have been the parents of Pierre who married Anne and were the parents of Samuel (see note under Samuel LeMare’s entry) and Jean (p193a of Hug Soc Publns vol 2) would be Samuel’s uncle.

   However, the Registers mentioned above indicate two families in which there was a Pierre Le Maire about 1670:

   A. Bartholomew, son of Pierre Le M and Jeanne Billo, married Marie Blanchard in 1670; their family was: 1 Pierre 1671; 2 Pierre 1673; 3 Pierre 1674; 4 Jacques 1676; 5 Bart. 1678; 6 Marie 1680; 7 Henry 1682. Presumably the first two children died in infancy. The third may have been the father of our family.

   B. The family of Pierre Le Maire and Madelayne Gellée, mentioned above, was: 1 Pierre 1667; 2 Jean 1669; 3 Daniel 1670; 4 Marye 1674; 5 Madelaine 1676.

   The International Genealogical Index records indicate that a Peter Le Maire married Anne Jackson at St Mary Magdelene Old Fish Street on 22 April 1697. No record of the marriage of Peter and Anne seems to occur in the Records of Threadneedle Street Church where Jean and Samuel, sons of Peter and Anne, were baptized. Possibly Peter married an English woman in an Anglican church, but their children were baptized in the Huguenot church. T L G Landon (Proc Hug Soc 34 (4) 328) reports that his family settled in Spitalfields which was in the parish of St Dunstan’s Stepney until Christ Church Spitalfields was consecrated in 1729. Baptisms of Samuel Landon’s family were at Threadneedle St but their marriages and burials were at St Dunstan’s. International Genealogical Index records that a Peter LeMare, son of Peter LeMare and Anne, was baptized at St Dunstan’s Stepney on 6 Nov 1698. Possibly this child was an elder brother of Jean and Samuel.

Natalie Rothstein of the V and A Museum, in a lecture during the tercentenary anniversary of the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes, stated that Huguenots in France were not allowed to weave – they were assistants to the weavers so that they would have to serve apprenticeships on arrival in England unless, presumably, they had served elsewhere such as Holland. However, this presumably applied only after the revocation of the Edict on 22 October 1685. R D Gwynn in Huguenot Heritage (1st edn p21, 2nd edn p26) implies that under the Edict protestants worked as apprentices and masters. Thus Pierre LeMaire probably arrived with skill in silk manufacture.

R D Gwynn also reports (op.cit. 1st edn p169, 2nd edn p212) that ‘ouvrier en soye’ was used in the registers of the French Church of London and La Patente Spitalfields before 1700 when it was replaced by ‘weaver’; this word was difficult for Frenchmen to spell and 38 variants were recorded in the registers. Gwynn states that from 1686 Paul Girardot and others were determined to master English quickly.

In the various records the name is spelt Le Mare, Le Mair and Le Maire; in these notes the name is spelt as it appears in the records.

Pierre, or Peter, married Anne ----- #191, b. ca 1670.

The evidence for Anne being the name of the wife of Pierre Le Maire #190 is the entry in International Genealogical Index for the birth of Samuel #66. Her name does not appear in the entry for his brother Jean. Anne's surname may have been Jackson. International Genealogical Index shows that a Peter Le Maire married Anne Jackson on 22 April 1697 at St Mary Magdelen, Old Fish Street. Cox and Padfield, in Tracing your Ancestors in the Public Records Office state that marriages were often in the parish church of the bride.

Michael Gandy in Huguenots from Brittany (Huguenot Families: 19 Sept 2008 p 12) records that Samuel Jackson, a servant of Marquise (Marchioness) married Marguerite Renaud and had three children. An account of the emigrants from Brittany records calls him Samson Jacquesson and says that he had gone to Bordeaux with his wife and two of his children.

International Genealogical Index reports six christenings of children of Pierre/Peter Le Maire/Le Mare/Le Mere/Le Mair and Ann/Anne during 1695-1707. Some were at Threadneedle Street Huguenot church, others at St Dunstan's Stepney.

Children:

1. Jean Le Maire #192, b. 1701 in Dean and Flowr Street Stepney, baptized 9 Jul 1701 in French Church Threadneedle Street.

2. Samuel Le Maire #66 b. 1703.
Generation two

2. Samuel Le Maire #66, b. 1703 in Den and Flowerdin Street Stepney London,\(^4\) baptized 2 May 1703 in French Church Threadneedle Street,\(^7\) d. 1759,\(^8\) occupation Weaver. Married 17\(___) Elisabeth ----- #67, b. 1693,\(^9\) d. 1785.\(^9\)

MJ Warren (#576) gives date of christening 30 Apr 1704; HSP16 gives 2 May 1703. MJW provided the name of Samuel's wife. Weavers' Bindings 1737-65: (Huguenot Families, No 25, June 2008, p20) "Apprenticeship was almost always at exactly 14 ..." Samuel seems to have been apprenticed and age 16.

The parentage of Samuel is uncertain. See notes on Anne #191.

Samuel Le Maire's Indenture as an apprentice states that he was the son of Peter Le Mare, and that he was apprenticed on 18 Jan 1719 - see transcript of the indenture.

The reverse of the Indenture is signed: "p Jas Dandy Weaver 21 March 1731" and "Saml Wright Warden". Evidently he was admitted to the Company in 1731.

Church papers spell the name with i; Weavers' Co Indenture without i.

In his history of the family Richard Le Mare (#34) states that Samuel's wife was a French woman who lived to be 92, had three or four husbands and a large family. Her name is not known but M J Warren records it as Elisabeth. We do not know which of her husbands was Samuel.

Ebenezer Robert (#51) wrote to his daughter Annie (#176) 21 May 1880: "... the tradition is that my Great Grandmother was brought from France in a box or basket marked "Fish", and that she lived to be 92 years old, and had 22 children."

Notes on ELISABETH (#67) 1693-1785.

In his history states Richard Le Mare (#34) that his great grandmother was 9 in the year that Queen Anne was crowned in 1702, that she was a French woman who lived to be 92 years old, had three or four husbands, and a large family. Richard did not know which of her husbands was his great grandfather. This would make her date of birth about 1693. Possibly this is how J P Consterdine (#228) arrived at the date of birth; he did not know her name but MJ Warren reported her name to be Elisabeth, possibly taken from a marriage record of International Genealogical Index.

R M Fry MBE of 29 Prince Regent's Close Brighton BN2 5JP, in a letter dated 6 March 1970, in the Le Mare file in the Huguenot Society in which he sought information on his ancestors, stated that his maternal grandmother descended from a Le Mare who escaped from persecution as a child in 1693 and lived in England until 1785. Perhaps he confused her date of birth with the date of her arrival in England. Fry also commented that he had been told that Le Mares were mentioned in the Roll of Battle Abbey as having landed with William I, at Canterbury. He stated that at the time of writing he was an old man and his only surviving maternal aunt resided in Germany.

Children:

i. Samuel Le Mare #69, b. 1730,\(^4\) baptized 17 May 1730 in Christ Church Spitalfields.\(^10\) In International Genealogical Index recorded as son of Samuel Le Mair.

The following may refer to Samuel Le Mare #69. International Genealogical Index shows a Samuel Le Mare the son of Samuel Lemaire and Anne, christened 26 Aug 1757 at Christ Church Spitalfields. This may indicate that the wife of #69 was named Anne and that they had a child named Samuel. Against this entry International Genealogical Index records 'Infant' in columns B and E but it is not clear what this means; possibly he died in infancy. International Genealogical Index also records that a Samuel Lemaire married a Mary Darby on 5 June 1770 at St Leonards Shoreditch; possibly #69 married twice.

ii. Anne Le Mare #70, b. 1731,\(^4\) baptized 12 Sep 1731 in Christ Church Spitalfields. In International Genealogical Index recorded as Le Maire.

iii. Martha Le Mare #71, b. 1734, baptized 3 Apr 1734 in Christ Church Spitalfields. d._.

3. iv. Robert Le Mare #54 b. 1734.
3. Robert Le Mare#54, b. 1734, baptized 20 Apr 1735 in Christ Church Spitalfields, d. 26 Oct 1794 in Peter Street St Botolphs Bishopsgate, buried 26 Oct 1794 in Bunhill Fields, occupation Beadle, Weavers Company. Married Elisabeth -----#55, b. 17__.

RGL's family tree states: Mentioned in her husband's will 1794, then living. MJW shows 7 children but in a different order; one of the daughters is given as Mary instead of Ann Louisa. JPC records that she was a French woman.

International Genealogical Index shows that Robert Le Mare and Elisabeth baptized Mary on 30 April 1777 at Bridewell Hospital Chapel, where Joshua and James were baptized. International Genealogical Index does not record Ann Louisa. RGLms records Ann Louisa but not Mary; maybe she died as a child. All children except Mary are recorded in Robert's will, which suggests that Mary died young. Richard Le Mare (#34) thought there were four sons and two daughters. Elizabeth and Esther married, Ann and Mary not. JPC stated that Robert married a French woman and that they had four sons and two daughters but he named only Joshua.

A Robert Le Mare seems to have had a coat of arms. A drawing (undated) is in JPC's notes (p75). It was redrawn and coloured by Kathleen Le Mare (#117) She gave the dates 1734-94 but her notes say the zig-zag shield was popular in 1770-1810; maybe the arms were of 54's son, Robert 1767-? (#56). See also files on Minnie Le Mare (#236) and Gordon Havelock Le Mare (#243); both claim crests bearing a negro's head. Robert Le Mare's crest did not bear this but had a mermaid with comb and glass indicating the family may have had nautical connections. The negro's head may indicate slave trading and hence thus also nautical. The nautical background suggests a connection with Isaac Le Maire of the Dutch East India Company. Minnie Le Mare claimed that the family came from La Rochelle but Isaac was from Amsterdam (see notes on him).

RGL's family tree states RL#54 lived in Peter Street Bishopsgate, formerly of Hunt Street, Mile End New Town, Middlesex.

Robert was admitted to Weavers Company of the City of London 17 Dec 1759. Will dated 20 Oct 1794, proved in London 20 Nov following (570 Holman). Freeman Records for 1759 in CLRO state "Robert Le Mare son of Samuel Le Mare Citizen and weaver of London and desired to be admitted into the Freedom of this City by Patrimony in the said Company of Weavers, because he is legitimate and was born after the admission of his father into the said Freedom. The admission of his father is entered in the book marked with the letter and bears the date 23 March 1731" (with 26 below this date, indicating Robert was 26 when he applied). This information from CFI 855 in CLRO. WCQR: 1790, 91-2, 93-4, Upper beadle; 94-5 dead.

There are many entries of Peter Le Mare in the Quarterage Reports (Annual accounts of quarterage arrears, comprising lists of court, livery and. – [Vols.1-18B]) of the Weavers' Company; the first entry with address 6 Tooley Street is for 1789; later addresses are Brick Lane (1795-6, 1810-11) and Wood Street (1815-16). Robert's will in the Public Records Office, Chancery Lane, records the trustees as Peter Le Mare and Thomas (not James) Dunn of Norton Folgate. Thomas Dunn was a witness to the admission to the Weavers' Company of Joshua Le Mare (#48), Robert's son.

No further information about Peter Le Mare, nor evidence that he was a member of the family, has been found. However, the Shorter Oxford English Dictionary gives a definition of 'friend' as a kinsman or near relative OE. In the index of the Guildhall library publication on the livery companies the entry Mathematical instrument maker refers the reader to Clockmakers. Clock makers became involved in the maintenance of looms. Possibly Peter Le Mare was engaged in this type of work.

Ebenezer Robert Le Mare (#51) wrote (p76 of G Brown's transcript of JPC): "there was an old clock in the family, which was valued, and once belonged to a Mr Paul Le Mare, who was regarded, I believe, as a learned man; but as the clock was said to be 120 years old when I was a child, the clock and its owner have done their work." Did ERL inadvertently write Paul instead of Peter and was this a reference to Peter Le Mare the mathematical instrument maker who may have been a clockmaker also? Peter was about the same age as Robert #54 who was ERL's grandfather, to whom he refers in the paragraph before the one quoted.

Children:

i.  Elizabeth Le Mare #60, b. 1765, baptized 16 Jun 1765 in St Dunstan's
Stepney. 10

  International Genealogical Index shows that an Elizabeth Le Mare married Henry Stokes on 25 April 1793 at St Botolph's Bishopsgate. On that date she would have been aged 27 so could have been the spouse of Henry Stokes. See also Charlotte Caroline Le Mare (#372). At the time of Elizabeth's marriage Robert Le Mare (#54) was living at Peter Street in the parish of St Botolph Bishopsgate where the above marriage took place.

ii.  Robert Le Mare #56, b. 1767, baptized 31 May 1767 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, occupation Weaver, Schoolmaster. Married (1) 18 Nov 1790 in St Michael Bassishaw (Demolished 1900), 11 Elizabeth Prestage #188. (2) 11 Mar 1798 in St
  Matthew's Church Bethnal Green, 12 Mary Garthwaite #361.

The Quiet Conquest: The Huguenots 1685-1985 states: Anna Maria Garthwaite (1690-1763) was a leading silk designer who worked freelance in Spitalfields from mid 1720s to mid 1750s. Was Mary a relative of Anna Maria? In 1798 Robert's address was Great Pultney Street Soho (WCQR 1797-8). International Genealogical Index shows
Mary Garthwaite as a relative of Robert Le Mare. The seventh child of Samuel #57, Robert's brother, was named Anna Maria, b 1802, perhaps after Anna Maria Garthwaite, although she died in 1763.

International Genealogical Index indicates that Robert and Elisabeth had sons,
Robert George, baptized 27 May 1792; Andrew 3 Jan 1794, both at St Botolph Bishopsgate. Also a dghtr, Elizabeth, bap. 27 June 1795 at St Botolph's. Also, International Genealogical Index shows Robert Le More (sic) and Mary (Garthwaite?)
had a son, Augustus, bap. in 1802 at St Mary's Battersea. However, International Genealogical Index's marriage entry shows the surname spelt correctly; & Mary Garthwaite as a relative of Robert.

Robert attended Christ's Hospital, the 'Blue Coat School' (RL's History).
Horwood's A to Z of Regency London shows Christ's Hospital in Newgate Street; the GPO is now on this site. WCQR 1789-90: Le Mare Robert Junr 10 Peter Street Half Moon Alley
Weaver P 5 Jan 1790.

WCQR 1791-2: 26 Chapple St; 92-3 21 Primrose Street Bishopsgate and listed as a Schoolmaster; 93-4, 94-5, 95-6 ditto; 96-7 Windsor Street; 97-8 Gt Pultney Street (Guildhall Library).

Robert's Freedom Record (CLRO CFI/1119) is marked Shoreditch PO6, as is his brother Samuel's. It shows Copy, the date of his father's admission to the Freedom, as 1759, and Born 1767. He was presented by John Turner Harris, Warden.
He was admitted to the Freedom 5 Jan 1790. He appears in the Quarterage Returns until 1817-18. Pigot Directory 1836: Robert Le Mare Academy Grove Terrace Stamford
Hill.

RGLms shows address Peter Street Half Moon Alley; Quarterage Report for 1789-90 shows this address at time of admission. Horwood's A to Z of Regency London shows Half Moon Street, not Alley, near to Peter Street. There was a Half Moon Alley further west. Possibly the inclusion of Half Moon Alley is a reference to the street and was included to distinguish this Peter Street from the Peter Street off Tyssen Street at the north end of Brick Lane.

The coat of arms was possibly of this Robert – see notes on RL#54.

Robert's second wife was Mary Garthwaite - was she related to Anna Maria Garthwaite the silk designer? The Quiet Conquest: The Huguenots 1685-1985 states:
Anna Maria Garthwaite (1690-1763) was a leading silk designer who worked freelance in Spitalfields from mid 1720s to mid 1750s. Possibly Mary was a relative of Anna Maria. In 1798 Robert's address was Great Pultney Street Soho (WCQR 1797-8). Mrs Rosemary Weinstein (Museum of London) stated at the Spitalfields Workshop, 1 Dec 1990, that neither Anna Maria nor her sister were married. She suggested that Mary may have been a ward of Anna Maria or her sister, or of the family, who took their name. However, Anna Maria died in 1763, four years before Robert was born so that it seems unlikely that she was directly associated with Mary, who would be approximately Robert's age; they married in 1798. International Genealogical Index shows that Robert and Mary were related; perhaps a Mary Le Mare had previously married a Garthwaite. A niece of RL #56, born in 1802, was named Anna Maria (#187); possibly this indicates a link with Anna Maria Garthwaite.

iii. Esther Le Mare #59, b. 5 Jan 1769, baptized 15 Jan 1769 in St Leonard's Shoreditch. Married ----- Dudley #362

RGLms gives date of baptism 1760; this is probably wrong. He obtained the information from a professional searcher. MJW and International Genealogical Index give baptism date as 1769.

4. iv. Samuel Le Mare #57 b. 2 Feb 1770.
5. v. Joshua Le Mare #48 b. 13 Mar 1772.
6. vi. James Le Mare #58 b. 23 Jan 1774.
7. vii. Mary Le Mare #62, b. 3 Apr 1777, baptized 30 Apr 1777 in Bridewell Hospital Chapel.
8. viii. Ann Louisa Le Mare #61, b. 1780, d. 5 May 1841 in Grove Hall Bow.
Generation four

4. Samuel Le Mare #57, b. 2 Feb 1770, baptized 25 Feb 1770 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. 13 Nov 1840 in Squires Street Bethnal Green, buried in Bunhill Fields, occupation Silk weaver. Married 6 Jan 1790 in St John's Hackney, Sarah Renshaw #183, b. 3 Dec 1770, d. 18 Sep 1853, buried in Bunhill Fields. A note in the Great Card Index of the Society of Genealogists, under LeMare: 'Le Mare, Samuel, and Sarah Renshaw Spin both of Hackney St John at Hackney'.

Described on his daughter Rebecca's death certificate as silk manufacturer.

Samuel LEMARE, weaver, of Hackney Row, is mentioned in the Weavers Company Quarterage Lists for 1790,91-2,92-3 Hackney Road weaver P 3 May 1791 WCQR 1794-5, 95-6.; Le Mare Samuel Under beadle; 96-7, 97-8 Upper Beadle. Samuel's Freedom Record (CLRO CFI/1135) is marked PO6 Shoreditch. Copy 1759, the date of his father's (Robert's) admission, and Born 1770. He was presented by Thomas Brooks, Warden. He was admitted 3 May 1791. The Quarterage Report for 1810-11 gives his address as 4 Elder Street, and shows he was Upper Beadle of the Weavers Company. Kent's Post Office Directories for 1810 11 12 13 have Le Mare & Co Harness Makers 4 Elder Street Spitalfields. The SOED states that harness is the apparatus in a loom by which the sets of warp threads are shifted alternately to form the shed.

Children:

i. Samuel Renshaw Le Mare #184, b. 29 Jul 1791, baptized 21 Aug 1791 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. 29 Oct 1876, buried 4 Nov 1876 in Abney Park Cemetery.

Went to Australia (Susan Yule investigating Le Mare roots). RGLms states he died unmarried. MJW's list of wills indicates he left £8000. Will and codicil - 27 Victoria Park Square, Victoria Park Midsx. Died 29 Oct 1876.

ii. John Thomas Le Mare #537, b. 11 Apr 1793, baptized 8 May 1793 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. 23 Sep 1798, buried in Bishopsgate.

iii. Sarah Esther Le Mare #538, b. 1 Jun 1795, baptized 5 Jul 1795 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. 13 Feb 1796, buried in Bishopsgate.

7. iv. Isaac Dunn Le Mare #185 b. 24 Mar 1797.

v. Sarah Susanna Le Mare #539, b. 1 Apr 1799, baptized 28 Apr 1799 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. ___ Sep 1883, buried 25 Sep 1883 in Abney Park Cemetery.

8. vi. Rebecca Mary Le Mare #540 b. 22 Nov 1800.

9. vii. Anna Maria Le Mare #187 b. 8 Nov 1802.

viii. John Paul Le Mare #541, b. 5 May 1804, baptized 3 Jun 1804 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. 19 Nov 1858, buried 27 Nov 1858 in Abney Park Cemetery, occupation Button seller.

Pigot Directory 1836 records John Paul as a shoe mercer, haberdasher & trimming seller 108 Houndsditch; 1842, 1846 Button & trimming seller 108 Houndsditch. A shoe-mercer is defined in the OED as one who deals in shoemercery; shoemercery being laces, buttons, and other small wares of a boot and shoe dealer. Isaac Dunn #185, bro. of JPL #541 was also described as a shoe mercer and leather merchant.

ix. Josiah Robert Le Mare #542, b. 17 Apr 1806, baptized 18 May 1806 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. ___.

International Genealogical Index: Le Mare, Elizabeth Sarah d.o. Josiah Le Mare and Elizabeth, bap. 18 March 1829 at St Leonard's Shoreditch. Le Mare, Mary Ann, d.o. Josiah Robert and Elizabeth, bap. 2 Jul 1857, at St Dunstan's Stepney. This is almost certainly too late to be the daughter of #542 unless he married a much younger woman after his first wife. Pigot Directory 1836 records Josiah Le M Cane spreader 42 Green St Globe Flds

Pigot's Directory 1836 records a Josiah Le Mare, Cane Spreader, 42 Green St Globe Fields. Warner (The Silk Industry of the UK) p448 describes beaming or cane spreading as the transfer of the warp from the warping mill to the back roller of the loom, work requiring great care and exactitude. SOED: beam, the wooden cylinder in a loom, on which the warp is wound before weaving, also called fore-beam. The similar roller on which the cloth is wound as it is woven, also called back-beam.

10. x. Aubrey William Le Mare #186 b. 2 May 1808.
11. xi. William Thomas Le Mare #368 b. 22 Dec 1810.

5. Joshua Le Mare #48, b. 13 Mar 1772 in London (possibly at Bridewell RL p 2), baptized 5 Apr 1772 in Bridewell Hospital Chapel, d. 7 Nov 1847 in Spital Square, London, buried in Bunhill Fields. Occupation: Silk weaving & manufacture. Married 27 Jun 1793 in St Olave Old Jewry, London, Sarah Easto #49, b. ca 1772, d. 16 Nov 1832 in Spital Square (RL p 9). Her name may have been Sarah Easte (International Genealogical Index) but Richard Le Mare's manuscript shows Easto and states he believes she was of Yorkshire extraction.

Described in Trade Directory for 1842 and 1853 as Silk and Velvet Manufacturers (MJW). JPC gives date of marriage as 1794. International Genealogical Index shows Joshua and Sarah had a son, Henry, bapt. 23 Mar 1800 at St Leonard's Shoreditch. He may have died in childhood and so is not in family records. JPC states that there were eleven children but does not name all of them.

Peter H Le Mare has a portrait in oil of Joshua Le Mare and his will is with John S Le Mare, who has a named photograph of the portrait. The photo is referred to on p 46 of JPC. JPC states that Joshua and his wife, Sarah Easto, had 11 children. Richard Le Mare's (#34) history records that Joshua was a weaver of white velvet and that he founded the Le Mare silk business about 1814. Joshua Le Mare & Son Silk Manufacturers 18 Steward Street Spitalfields are in Pigot & Co Directories for 1817, 22, 23, and of 27 Spital Square in the Post Office Directory for 1846. Le Mare & Son Silk Manufacturers 27 Spital Square are in Pigot Directory for 1836. WCQR, 1792-3: Le Mare Joshua Blossom Street Weaver P 27 Mar 1793 (Richard's papers in CLRO show entry as 26 Mar 1793); 93-4, 94-5, 95-6, 96-7, 97-8 Blossom Street Norton Folgate. Joshua's Freedom Record (CLRO CFI/1157) is marked PO4 Bridewell Hospital, which was a school in what is now Bridewell Place, North Bridge St, near Blackfriars Bridge (see Horwood's A to Z of Regency London). He was admitted in March 1793. The Record certificate is marked Copy 1759, the date of his father's certificate of admission, and Born 1772. He was presented by Charles Child Warden. Witnesses were Th. Dunn, Thos. Brown, Taylor; Robert Le Mare, Weaver; James Boudon, Vintner; Richard Jordan, Bart.; William Hitchcock, Plaistr. The records of the Bridewell Hospital are with those of the Bethlem Royal Hospital and Maudsley Hospital at Beckenham: Archivist telephone 0181 777 6611 ext 4307 (see notes of visit to London Jan 1990).

Sir Frank Warner in The Silk Industry of the United Kingdom records, on p 658A, that Le Mare & Sons, 27, Spital Square, E, exhibited at the Great Exhibition of 1851. Their name appears in the List of Silk Manufacturers from the Art Journal Catalogue of the Exhibition. Pigot & Slater Directory 1843: Le Mare Joshua & Sons Silk Manufacturers 36 York St Mcr. Le Mare Joshua & Sons 38 York St. Notes made at the PRO Kew, 31 March 1993: In BT6/175 there are many memorials on the Acts controlling weavers' wages; their opponents obtained their repeal in 1824 when Parliament abandoned the policy of prohibition of imported silks. There were many memorials on this from Sandbach, Congleton, Macclesfield, Taunton, Spitalfields, Lancaster, Newton Failsworth, Manchester and Salford, Derby, Leek, Coventry Coggleshal, Sudbury, Middleton, Leicester and more. In 1829 the Silk Manufacturers of the City of London sent a memorial repudiating "a memorial presented by a Mr Beckwith and one or two others" The signatories were headed by J. Le Mare & Sons of 27 Spital Square. Unfortunately the Beckwith memorial seemed not to be in the archives. BT6/176 in the PRO at Kew also contains memorials on silk but there appeared to be nothing concerning Le Mares.

Richard Le Mare (#34) wrote in his history of the family that when living in Steward Street they attended chapel in Cumberland Street Shoreditch but later at George Whitefield's Tabernacle in Moorfields so seem to have become non-conformists about 1820.

The photocopy of the grave sites at Bunhill Fields shows that Joshua was buried in plot 21/117. This area was bombed during the 1939-45 war and headstones were destroyed. The original of the photocopy is in The Guildhall Library. The site plan indicates that another Le Mare was buried in plot 4/64; the name may be Eliz. but the quality of the copy is poor.

1841 census: with his son Richard at 94 Bloomsbury, Rusholme Road, Manchester on the night of the census.

Children:

12. i. Joshua Richard Le Mare #50 b. 10 Oct 1796.
13. ii. Ebenezer Robert Le Mare #51 b. 20 Dec 1797.
   iii. Henry Le Mare #583, b. 25 Feb 1800, baptized 23 Mar 1800 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. 18__.
   There is no record of this person in the family papers; the International Genealogical Index is the source used.
14. iv. Ruth Le Mare #52 b. 20 Feb 1802.
   v. Charles Le Mare #399, b. 2 Oct 1803, baptized 30 Oct 1803 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. 18__.
   vi. Sarah Le Mare #53, b. 29 Jul 1806, baptized 24 Aug 1806 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. 1 May 1821.
   Richard Le Mare #34 gives the date of death of his sister Sarah and states that she was 15.
15. vii. Richard Le Mare #34 b. 14 Jan 1814.

6. James Le Mare #58, b. 23 Jan 1774, baptized 17 Feb 1774 in Bridewell Hospital Chapel, d. 24 Nov 1838 in Minerva Street Bethnal Green, occupation Silk weaver (Kft). Married 10 Jun 1802 in St Anne's Soho, Sarah Willis #358, b. ca 1772, d. 3 Apr 1843 in Wellington Road Bethnal Green.
   Pigot & Co Directory for 1836 shows James Le Mare Shopkeeper Wick Street Hackney; this may be #58 or his son #359. RGIs: address Kong Street Shoreditch. International Genealogical Index shows a James LeMare married Sarah Humphris on 7 Feb 1796 at St Luke's Old Street Finsbury. Was she #58's first wife? Also, Sarah Elizabeth, d.o. James and Sarah, bap. 19 Mar 1797 at Christ Church, Spitalfields. International Genealogical Index shows John Le Mare, s.o. James and Sarah, bap. 5 Aug 1804, at St Leonard's Shoreditch.

Children:

16. i. James Le Mare #359 b. 3 Mar 1799.
   ii. Elizabeth Esther Le Mare #364, b. 1803, baptized 15 May 1803 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. _. Married 18 Feb 1823 in St Matthew's Church Bethnal Green, James Long #365, d. _.
7. Isaac Dunn Le Mare #185, b. 24 Mar 1797 in City of London,11,26 baptized 26 Jul 1797 in St Leonard's Shoreditch,11 d. 10 Apr 1885 in Houghton House High Road Tottenham,11 buried 17 Apr 1885 in Abney Park Cemetery,27,28 occupation Galloon manufacturer. Married 1817,28 Lydia Prestage #229, d. 1874,29 buried 26 Jan 1875 in Abney Park Cemetery, aged 79.16 IK-J gives her name as Lydia Prestage. Her daughter was Rachel Prestage Le M. Any relation to Elizabeth Prestage, first wife of Robert Le M (#56)? Isaac Dunn Le Mare #185, Lydia Prestage's husband, was a nephew of Robert Le Mare.

RGLmns shows Isaac Dunn Le Mare of Houghton House and Basinghall Street. P.O. Direct. for 1846 shows Isaac D. Le Mare Galloon Manufacturer of 38 Basinghall Street. Pigot Directory 1836: Le Mare & Gooch Galloon and Ribbon Manufacturers 9 Little Love Lane, Wood Street (very close to Basinghall St). Galloon: a narrow, close-woven ribbon or braid, of gold, silver or silk thread used for trimming articles of apparel; a trimming of this. (SOED). In later directories IDL is described as a shoe mercer and leather merchant, as was his brother John Paul #541 q.v. Huguenot Society records indicate he was admitted to the Weavers Co on 4 May 1831.

Natalie Rothstein in a lecture to the Huguenot Society on 12 May 1993 (The successful and the unsuccessful Huguenot, another look at the London silk industry in the 18th and 19th centuries. Proc Hug Soc 25 (5) 439–450) reported that in 1828 Isaac Le Mare and John Prestage were recorded bankrupt. Her information came from bankruptcy records in the PRO. The bankruptcy is also reported in several issues of the London Gazette of 1828, 29, 30 where the individuals are reported as Isaac Le Mare and John Thomas Prestage, silk manufacturers, dealers and chapmen of Wood Street, Cheapside, and Bishops Stortford (OED: chapman, an itinerant dealer). However, the directories mentioned above indicate that Isaac remained in business. Possibly the bankruptcy was discharged by a relative or friend – perhaps Gooch. John Prestage was probably a relative, perhaps brother, of IDL’s wife Lydia Prestage #229; Isaac and Lydia named one of their children John Thomas.

Harold J Le Mare #561 q.v. recorded that Isaac Dunn was a wholesale calico merchant and had a warehouse.

Isaac Dunn's uncle Robert Le Mare #56 married first Elizabeth Prestage #188 so the two families appear to have been associated for many years.

It is interesting that Thomas Dunn was a friend of Robert Le Mare (#54) and a trustee of his will (see notes on RL’s will). This Robert was Samuel's father and Isaac's grandfather. Possibly Isaac's middle name was to recognise the friendship with Thomas Dunn. However Wagner, in Abstracts of Huguenot wills, gives the name as James Dunn. MJWwl: will proved 8 May 1885. Proved by sons Joseph #230 and John Thomas #231.

IDL and members of his family were buried at Abney Park cemetery which was founded in 1840. It was not a consecrated cemetery and was used by dissenters and non-conformists, succeeding Bunhill Fields.

1881 census: Retired silk manufacturer. His daughter, Emma, living with him at High Road Tottenham. Two female servants, cook and housemaid.

Married 17 Apr 1821 in St Leonard's Shoreditch,20 Elizabeth Alice Burrough #168, d. 27 Jan 1879.29

13. Richard Le Mare (#34) records Sarah Burrough; JPC records Burroughs. Richard states she was the daughter of a haberdasher of Shoreditch. RGLms records that Joshua Richard married Elizabeth Alice, widow, who died 27 Jan 1879. International Genealogical Index records name as Elizabeth Alice. Burrough may be derived from French names Burret or Buret - See HSQS vol 3 and HS Proc 25 p363.

Richard Le Mare's (#34) history states that Joshua moved to Manchester to start silk manufacture there in 1840, following a visit to his brother Ebenezer Robert who started silk manufacturer there in 1829. WCQR vol 108 (1830-44) describes JRL's trade as silk manufacturer, residence 18 Steward Street, Freedom when admitted 5 Oct 1819, Quarterage when redeemed 5 Oct 1819. RGLms gives addresses: North Terrace Camberwell Surrey; Spring Gardens Manchester; and sometime of Highbury Place Middsx. MJW's list of wills gives address as 10 North Terrace, Camberwell and Spring Gardens Manchester. Left £800. Widow, Elizabeth Alice, sole executrix. Pigot & Slater's Directory of Manchester for 1843 records Joshua Le Mare & Sons Silk manufacturers 38 York St Manchester. Warner, in The Silk Industry of the United Kingdom, states on p 313 that in about 1860 J R Lemaire and Sons, of Spital Square, attempted to start a factory at Dover for the manufacture of velvets but found that a military town was not suited to this purpose. Pigot & Slater Directory 1843: Le Mare Joshua & Sons silk manufacturers 36 York St Mcr. iii. Sarah Le Mare #797, b. 22 Aug 1825, baptized 16 Nov 1825 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, May have died in infancy.

iv. Joseph Burrough Le Mare #343, b. 15 Apr 1827, baptized 9 May 1827 in St Leonard's Shoreditch.

v. James Joshua Le Mare #344, b. 14 Mar 1829, baptized 15 Apr 1829 in St Leonard's Shoreditch.

vi. Eleanor Adelaide Le Mare #346, b. 9 Jun 1830, baptized 22 Sep 1830 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. 23 Oct 1912, buried in Highgate.

vii. John Charles Le Mare #552, b. 20 Mar 1832, baptized 17 Apr 1832 in St Leonard's Shoreditch.

viii. Emily Martha Le Mare #347, b. 1837, baptized 22 Feb 1837 in St Leonard's Shoreditch. Shirley Ingham states that International Genealogical Index gives date of birth 15 Dec 1837 but International Genealogical Index also gives date of christening as 22 Feb 1837; one or both must be wrong.

13. Ebenezer Robert Le Mare #51, b. 20 Dec 1797 at 4 Blossom Street, Norton Folgate, London, baptized 14 Jan 1798 in St Leonard's Shoreditch, d. 4 Feb 1881 at Hazelwood Civedon, Somerset, buried in Family vault Handforth Church Cheshire, occupation Silk goods manufacturer.

Married (1) 9 Jan 1823 in St Dunstan's Church Fleet Street London, Easter Hammond Vigers #167, b. 1795, d. 23 Jun 1870 in Albert House Albert Road Birkdale, buried in Family vault Handforth Church Cheshire.

See JPC2 for correspondence with her daughter Annie. JPC (p69) shows a copy of the armorial bearings of the Vigers family, drawn from a porcelain vase which belonged to Easter Hammond Vigers and in 1921 was in the possession of her grandson John Le Mare Bunch M D (#313). International Genealogical Index (Lancs) shows her as Esther in the entry of Ebenezer Vigers Le Mare's baptism but Easter is inscribed on the family vault so is presumably correct. Easter's father was Mr Thomas Vigers, builder and contractor to the Middle Temple. One of her grandfathers was a Mr Hammond. see JPC p65.

If Easter received her name because she was born on Easter Day, her date of birth in 1795 was Sunday, 5th April.

EBENEZER ROBERT Le Mare (#51) 1797-1881 left London in 1829 to start silk manufacture in Manchester (Richard Le Mare #34 A Short Sketch of Early Family History). He became a JP. WCQR vol 108 (1830-1844) describes ERL, under "trade" as Gentleman, residence Guildford Bank. Freedom admitted 5 Oct 1819.

Sir Frank Warner in The Silk Industry of the United Kingdom states (p162) that E R Le Mare was one of 27 signatories of a Memorial to Benjamin Disraeli, Chancellor of the Exchequer, dated 10 Nov 1852. The memorial drew attention to the depressed state of the trade in broad silks, which they manufactured. They considered that the depression was attributable to the limited foreign demand for their goods and that this was caused by the protective duty imposed on foreign goods which created the impression in world markets that England was unable to compete with continental manufacturers, so that the trade was almost entirely in the hands of Swiss and French competitors. The signatories called for the immediate repeal of the duty. Four manufacturers did not sign. One, John Morley, said he declined to sign his own death warrant. At the time Warner wrote (probably in the 1920s) only Morley's business had survived and was carried on at Patricroft by Messrs Robinson and Millington.

It is interesting to note that a Millington family was associated with the Jackson family into which Alfred Le Mare (#23) and his sister Elizabeth Agnes Le Mare (#40) married, but there are few details and no indication that it was the silk family Millington. Ebenezer Robert's children were born at 28 Spital Square (JPC); Joshua Le Mare & Son's address was 27 Spital Square in 1836, 1846 and 1851 (Trade Directories) jpc p93 indicates ERL's business address may have been 39 Mosley Street, Manchester. Pigot & Slater Directory for Macclesfield shows Le Mare & Lane as Silk Mnfrs at Commercial Road Mill in 1841. JPC p26 records that ERL had a throwing mill in Macclesfield and was in partnership with a Mr Symonds in a Print Works in Handforth, Cheshire. Was this for printing silk or calico? Natalie Rothstein in a lecture to the Huguenot Society on 12 May 1993 stated that some Huguenots in Spitalfields and elsewhere became involved with calico printing. However, many did not because they regarded the business as too risky. The family lived at 9 Leaf Square Pendleton but moved to Belmont, Cheadle, about 1844 (JPC p 27) and to The Grange, Eccles New Road, seven years later (JPC p 29). JPC p32 records that ERL was a member of The Cheetham Society; a Trustee and Churchwarden of Christ Church Salford; had a large share in building St Philip's Church Bradford Road Manchester and the schools at Handforth; Treasurer of the Manchester and East Lancashire Association of the Church Missionary Society and of the Church Pastoral Aid Society; he was at one time Treasurer and subsequently Vice-President of the Manchester Royal Infirmary; a JP of the City of Manchester. For many years a member of the board of management of the Manchester City Mission. JPC p39 records that the children of Handforth Sunday School paraded before ERL at the Printworks House when he presented them with a new silk banner. An obituary was published in the Leigh Chronicle 12 Feb 1881. Will: late of Hazelwood Clevedon Somerset d. 4 Feb 1881 at Hazelwood. Probate 21 Mar 1881 to Mary Dorothy Le Mare of Hazelwood Widow the Relict, Joseph Rice of the City of Manchester Banker & Joseph Consterdine of Overstone Terrace Cheetham Hill Manchester Gentleman, the Executors. Personal Estate under £30 000.

On p76 of G Brown's transcript of JPC ERL wrote that there was a tradition that our ancestors were naval people and referred to a coat of arms extant in the family. He said the crest is a mermaid with a glass and a comb; the shield is all waves, of the sea: and the motto translated into English is "This is my right".

Although International Genealogical Index records that ERL was baptized at St Leonard's Shoreditch Richard Le Mare's history states on p5 that the family attended Chapel in Cumberland Street, Shoreditch, that ERL was placed in the bank of Messrs W Haydon and that Mr Haydon was an Evangelical Churchman.

Richard Le Mare's Certificate of Freedom of the Weavers' Company and of the City of London is held by Peter Le Mare at Allithwaite. The Certificate of Freedom states: Richard Le Mare, Son of Joshua Le Mare, Citz & Weaver of London, was admitted into the Freedom aforesaid and sworn in the Mayors of City of London Esq Mayor and Sir James Shaw, Bart Chamberlain and is entered in the book signed with the letter F relating to purchasing of Freedoms and the Admissions of Freedom (to wit) the 4th day of February in the 5th year of the reign of King William the Fourth in the year of our Lord 1835. In Witness whereof the Seal of the Office of Chamberlain of the said City is hereunto affixed in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the same City the day and year above said.

At the top left corner of the certificate are the letters PO indicating Patrimony Outside the City (see Vivienne E. Aldous (1989): The Archives of the Freedom of The City of London; Genealogists' Magazine 23 (4) 128-133 Dec 1989)

There is no inscription on the back of the certificate.

Richard Le Mare and family moved to Manchester in November 1840 to manage the warehouse of his brother Joshua Richard (#50) who had moved to Manchester earlier in 1840.

Richard's Certificate of Freedom in the CLRO (CFI 1632) states he was born without the Liberty of the City to wit at Blossom Street; father Joshua Le Mare Copy 1793. Born 1814.

Richard's son Ebenezer (#42) reports in articles in the Fleetwood Chronicle, Fylde News and Advertiser, Friday 9 Sept 1932, that Richard's firm was awarded a prize in the Silk Section of the International Exhibition arranged by the Society of Arts (see Warner p603) in London in 1862 (see Ebenezer Le Mare #42) See notes made at the Mcr Records Office. Addresses given are 1843 94 Bloomsbury Rusholme Rd Chorlton upon Medlock; 1852 78 Upper Brook St; 1869 he or his son Richard were at 90 Upper Brook St; died in 1893 at Willow Cottage Marple.

The death of Richard Le Mare was reported in the Leigh Journal of 16 June 1893 and stated that he started silk trading with his brothers Joshua and Ebenezer Robert in Oldham Road Manchester under the title J R Le Mare & Sons. In 1859 they took over a building built by Richard Guest in Brewery Lane Leigh and had handloom weavers working in the mill. Business was also given out from the warehouse in the Folly (Lord Street) and from behind the Three Crowns Inn. After his retirement 5 or 6 years before he died the shed was worked by George Griffin. Richard's work for the community was mainly carried out in Manchester.

From The End of an Era: A History of Bedford Church Primary School by Alan Dutton:

Silk manufacture had been introduced into Leigh in 1827. Weavers from the depressed cotton trade were readily available. Bedford appears to have been one of the centres of what became, for a time, a thriving industry. Several manufacturers had their warehouses in the Folly, which was later re-named Lord Street.

One of the most important firms was Bickham and Pownall who built a new Mill in Duke Street. This was later purchased by the Pennington Mill Company. Mr. John Horrocks, who for many years was Treasurer to the School Managers, was Chairman of the Company.

In 1859 a Huguenot silkweaver called Richard Le Mare opened a silk factory in Brewery Lane. John Lunn records that in its heyday the mill employed 1000 people.

However all did not go well in the silk trade. As the number of manufacturers increased so also did the practice of abatements of wages. At a time when many families lived in a state of near poverty this practice was cruelly oppressive.
The gradual migration of cotton weaving into mills and the development of power loom weaving had created a large pool of available labour. Unscrupulous manufacturers took advantage of this to “fine” weavers for reasons which were often totally out of their control.

Eventually a committee of gentlemen of Leigh decided to try to help the weavers. One member of the committee, to his great credit, was the Reverend Moorhouse James. It is sad to relate that the committee met with only limited success. When a fund was set up to help those who had suffered, it was frustrated by the manufacturers throwing so many people out of work at the same time that its available funds were exhausted.

By the 1890’s few of the original silk manufacturers still continued to trade in Leigh. At its height, however, the silk trade had employed many Bedford folk.

Index of Wills: Le Mare, Richard, of Willow Cott, Marple, gentleman, died 1 June 1893. Probate: Chester 30 June 1893 to Samuel Le Mare #37 silk manufacturer, Edward Joshua Le Mare cashier #41 and Herbert Somerville Jackson accountant #92. Effects £2374. 9s. 1d.

Marriage record of Richard Le Mare and Sarah Burden: R85 in Greater London Records Office, Northampton Road London. (Photocopy) Marriages solemnized in the Parish of St Mary Islington in the county of Middlesex in the year 1836. p285:

Richard Le Mare of the Liberty of Norton Folgate in the county of Middlesex a Bachelor and Sarah Burden of the parish of St Mary Islington in the same county a Spinster were married in this Church by Licence with consent of (blank) this ninth day of October 1836 By me Thomas Barton Hill, Curate. This marriage was solemnized between us (signed) Richard Le Mare, Sarah Burden in the presence of (signed) Samuel Burden, Mary Burden. No.885.

The International Genealogical Index includes Sarah Burden daughter of Samuel and Catherine, 12 June 1814; London Fetter Lane Independent; also Mary, 28 June 1818. There is no confirmation that this Sarah became the wife of Richard. Possibly Sarah's mother died before she married and her sister Mary was a witness.

Genealogists' Magazine 23 No 7 p 275 refers to Burden family records, by J C Baker 1977. These were perused on 18 Nov 1994 but reference to Sarah Burden #35 was not found.

A note on the back of a portrait of Sarah indicates it was drawn from a photograph by her grandson, E B Le Mare, on 19 November 1895 when he was aged 15.

Frederick Le Mare (#45) 1853-1908 went to Leigh from Manchester in 1870. See newspaper account (Leigh Journal 1 May 1908) of Frederick Le Mare, by his brother Ebenezer, entitled "Disappearance of an Old Lancashire Firm. The Le Mares and Silk Weaving". (Copied to the Red Book).

A twenty-first birthday present from his mother, Critical and Historical Essays by Lord Macaulay, bound in leather, is with PHL at Allithwaite.

Ebenezer Le Mare states in the newspaper account (Leigh Journal 15 May 1908) that "the grandfather of the present generation, Mr Robert Le Mare, established a silk business as a silk manufacturer, with a warehouse in Spital Square, in the early part of the last century" (ie early 19th C). This is a mistake: Richard Le Mare #34, Ebenezer's father, in his History p 4, records that his father Joshua #48, who was Ebenezer's grandfather, founded the business.

An obituary in the Leigh Chronicle 8 May 1908 stated that Fred died after a long and trying illness. About 13 months before his death he had an operation as he had a tumour in his brain, and during the last few months he was afflicted by blindness.

Harold J Le Mare #561 q.v. wrote that John Thomas left school aged 14 and was a general boy in some (?) sic warehouse for two years when he went as a clerk to William Underhill on the Stock Exchange on an April 30th. Worked his way up to head of the firm of Underhill and Le Mare. Married Ellen Moul in 1858. Had a hard time in middle life on account of his brothers, most of whom he had to help and in consequence had a lot to live down on their account. Was most generous and kind-hearted man and could never pass a Punch and Judy show without giving the showman 2/6d. He made a great name on the Stock Exchange and was greatly respected by all. His wife predeceased him by a few years. He lived in Ameshurst Road, Hackney and finally moved to Park Hill Rise, Croydon, where he died in October 1917 at a good old age. He had nine children.

Married 8 May 1862 in Cavendish Chapel Manchester, Euphemia Roberton #149, b. ca 1835 in Manchester, d. 9 Mar 1912. KMSL gives her name as Hamilton; JPC as Robertson. Malcolm Hamilton Le Mare said the name was Roberton. 1901 census shows her aged 69 so was born ca 1832, in Manchester. It also shows Margaret Roberton, single, aged 42, visitor, born in Scotland; and Richard Robinson, grandson aged 3 born in West Bromich.

   Notes on SAMUEL Le Mare (#37) 1839-1918.

   The 1881 census taken on 3 April records Samuel living at Windlehurst House, Marple, Cheshire. He is recorded as a felt manufacturer employing 400 hands. Eight children are recorded, all as scholars. There were two domestic servants, Eliza Jane Wilson (36) born Tyrone and Sarah Salmon (32) born at Manchester; neither was married.

   Ebenezer Le Mare's (#42) account of Frederick Le Mare (#45) and the Family Connection with the Silk Trade states that Samuel was in the trade, both in Manchester and Leigh, until he moved to Sherborne to manage the business of Messrs Willmott. In 1907 A R Wright & Co of Bingley purchased Willmott's mill at West Mills, installed new engines and machinery and made it a branch mill of their Bingley headquarters (Warner p336). Possibly Samuel retired at about this time, when he would have been 68.
E R Le Mare, uncle of Samuel and Frederick, had a mill at Bedford (not Beaford, as in Warner p 151) near Leigh.

There is little about Samuel in the records in Leigh but his name is in Kelly's Directory for Manchester 1887 as a silk manufacturer in the firm Le Mare & Griffin, silk and mixed goods manufacturers at 7 Portland St Manchester. In Slater's Manchester Directories 1898 and 1903 Le Mare is not shown under Manufacturers of silk so that Samuel seems to have withdrawn the family connection with silk in Manchester between 1887 and 1898. Frederick continued in Leigh until he died in 1908 - see notes on Frederick.

H. Margaret Le M (#105) commented (April 1990) that M S Le M (#29) used to say that Samuel closed the Le Mare silk business, so depriving Alfred, her father, of it. However, Frederick continued in the business but as the silk industry declined during the 19th century perhaps there was agreement on how the business should be continued.

The oil portrait of Joshua (#48) now with P H Le Mare at Allithwaite, was at one time in Samuel's possession (p46 of JPC).

Kelly's Directory 1887: Le Mare & Griffin, Silk & mixed goods manufacturers, 7 Portland St. See RL34 History p 9. Le Mare Samuel, Silk manufacturer [Le Mare & Griffin] 7 Portland St.

In a phone call in Dec 1991 Dorothy Spencer (#114) remembered Great Uncle Sam bringing her a "nigger" dolly, which she named "Sam", from USA; "nigger" was a word commonly used in the early twentieth century. Possibly Samuel had been to Texas where two of his sons (Richard #159 and George #161) and two daughters (Isabel #160 and Caroline #162) had emigrated. His daughter, Lucy (156) and her husband lived in Mexico and were murdered there, as was her sister Caroline (162) who was visiting them, in 1918. John Feltwell in The Story of Silk (1990: Alan Sutton) states on p100 "One of the wealthy traders of 'Spittlefields' was Abraham Elton. He dealt in wool, wine, tobacco, copper, brass and glass and also owned the estate of Clevedon Court, Somerset, where today there is also a legacy of mulberry trees." On p189 he states that "In the south-west there were at least two rival silk mills in Sherborne, Dorset, which had been there since 1753. One, of which little is known, was in the refectory of Sherborne Abbey. The other was Westbury Mill which was established by a Spitalfields throwster called John Sharrer. This mill was bought by the Willmott family in 1769, who then bought out the abbey silk mill. By 1885 silk-throwsting had replaced weaving. During the second world war the mill was converted to glass fibre production."

1911 census: Retired; living at Windlehurst, Hemyock, Cullompton. Also entered Euphemia, Isabel Coroline and one servant.

There are discrepancies in the records about the dates of birth and marriage. JPC and RGLft record the date of birth as 13 Oct 1843. In a list of dates of birthdays and wedding days AHL (#28) gives AL's birthday as 30 July 1843. AL's death certificate shows that he was 74 when he died on 20 October 1917 indicating that he was born before 20 October 1843 so that either date could be correct but 13 Oct seems more likely, being recorded by both RGLft and JPC, although the source of each may be the same. JPC gives the date of marriage as 16 June 1874 but a letter to AL dated 1875 from Heyrod Street Ragged School indicates, and Jms confirms, that the marriage was in 1875. MLL's (#24 wife of AL) manuscript records 16 June 1875. JPC and MLL agree on 16 June but JPC seems to have recorded the wrong year. The marriage was recorded in the register at Chorlon-upon-Medlock in the quarter April-June 1875, vol 8c, p 920 so 16 June 1875 was the probable date.

A desk with Peter Le Mare at Allithwaite bears the inscription "Presented to Alfred Le Mare Esq in recognition of 40 years service to the Heyrod Street Schools Ancoats Manchester 1871-1911."

Papers relating to Heyrod Street Schools, in addition to that mentioned above: 1) the programme for the Jubilee meeting on Thursday Nov 23, 1911 to celebrate completion of Mr William O'Hanlon's 50 years service, at which Alfred Le Mare read the original minute accepting Mr O'Hanlon as a teacher; 2) letter of Jan 9 1913 accepting the resignation of Alfred Le Mare because of poor health.

See ASL25 which states that Alfred Le Mare and his father #34 were in partnership as silk manufacturers in 1876; this is the only record of Alfred Le Mare being in the silk business.

AL & his brother-in-law HJS (#92) wrote an interesting account entitled A Tour of the Lake District in 1869 and a photograph, possibly of AL and HJS, by an Ambleside photographer, is in the leather bound album of the Jackson family.

Mary Levett Le Mare, née Jackson, prepared a Family History of the Stanways & Jacksons, signed Mary Levett Le Mare, Withington 1914. On p4 she wrote: Much of the following information was obtained from Miss Martha Gall Jackson of Manchester & is based partly on information obtained by Edward Stokes Jackson from church books at Gatley. Many dates have been supplied from John Stanway Jackson's memoranda in his copy of Bogatsky's Golden Treasury, lent by Miss Emma Sophia Jackson. Portraits of John Jackson and Mary Stanway, his wife, are in the possession of Miss Emma S. Jackson, Douglas, I of M. A Portrait of Mary Stanway Jackson is in the possession of Mrs Alfred Le Mare, Withington, M/c. This latter portrait remained with MLJ until the end of her life at Woodleigh, Laurel Road, St Helens, the home of Alfred Henry Le Mare, and finally passed to his daughter Kathleen who sold it.

A silver plated (probably not Sheffield plate) sugar bowl marked H.M.G.S. to A & M.L.L. and a silver sugar spoon marked M.S.S. to A & M.L.L. (assayed in London 1874-5) are with Peter Le Mare at Allithwaite. They were wedding presents. The spoon was probably made by John and Henry Lias of London. M.S.S. was Mary Stanway Shelly #444 (q.v.), first cousin of M.L.L. H.M.G.S. was Henrietta Maria Geldart Shelly. Mary Shelly Le Mare (#29) used to speak of her. She was the daughter of John Wilton Shelly #403 and his first wife Hannah Brightwen #447. Mary Stanway Shelly was a daughter by his second wife Martha Evans Jackson #99, an aunt of Mary Levett Jackson.

Cause of death: 1a. Cerebral thrombosis. Certified by J. Findlater M.B.

May (as she was known) was educated at Manchester High School for Girls where she met Helen Jane Hotson (#2) who married May's brother, Ernest. During 1914-18 war May worked in the Didsbury and Withington Auxiliary Hospital until October 1917, chiefly assisting with cooking. Then she moved to B. and S. Massey Ltd to take charge of the canteen; she received many compliments from Government Inspectors. During the war the company made munitions and employed a large number of women; she exercised general supervision of the women in all matter except their work. She was also in charge of the Ambulance room. In February 1922 MSL applied for a job at the Warrington Training College because the work she supervised at Masseys dwindled. However, upon the death of her brother Harry's wife in March 1922 she went to keep house and look after his children, Deryck and Kathleen, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne. She lived with her brother Harry (#28) until he remarried when she moved to Grange-over-Sands. There she joined the art society (among her art friends she was known as Shelly) and for sometime went weekly to pottery classes in Morecambe.

In 197? May underwent a colostomy operation.

Copies of her testimonials are among the Le Mare papers.

One son, four daughters (JPC) but the red book states they had 6 children; Frederick died in infancy.

Extract from an article on H S Jackson in the Stockport P S A Leader Mar 1900:

So far back as 1830 we find that Mr Jackson's father and uncles were engaged in the hatting industry, under the firm Gilham, Jackson & Co whilst Mr John Stanway Jackson and Mr James Jackson were both connected with the world-famed Stockport Sunday School some seventy years ago. The independence of Nonconformity was evidently a strong and vital heritage in the Jackson family and the subject of our sketch relates with pride that his grandfather, John Jackson (1770-1840) was largely instrumental in founding the Congregational interest in Gatley, and the remains of his father, Peter Jackson, are interred in the family vault under the church there.

His aunt, Mrs Shelly, [née Martha Evans Jackson] was for many years a teacher in Orchard Street Congregational Sunday School and is the composer of several well-known hymns - "Lord a little band and lowly" and "Father let Thy Benediction" being perhaps the most popular. His father, Peter Jackson, was for some years a Deacon at the Rusholme Road Chapel and also Superintendent of the Sunday School there.

An oak writing chest presented to Herbert S Jackson is with Peter Le Mare at Allithwaite. It bears a silver plate inscribed: Presented to Mr Herbert S. Jackson by the Teachers, Scholars & Friends of George Lane, Woodley, as a memento of his services to the Sunday School, Dec. 15. 1889.

Notes from Eben's accounts "Some Recollections of an Octogenarian" (6 Oct 1928) and "Romance and Realities of Missionary Life" (about 1932) published in Fleetwood Chronicle, Fylde News and Advertiser, and other sources:

Born in Bloomsbury, Manchester, soon after moved to Upper Brook Street. Educated at the Misses Tubb's school and later at Chorlton High School which his brothers also attended; Owens College Arts Course 1864 graduating from University of London June 1867; Lancashire Independent College, (non-conformist theological) Whalley Range, 1867-1872; accepted by London Missionary Society before graduation; arrived Madras 1873. Worked in Salem. Visited England (date not known) and returned via Bombay to visit a brother in business there (perhaps Richard #46, who was married in Bombay). Travelled via Calcutta to Vizajapatem, his last station in India (see 1886 photo in "Romance and Realities of Missionary Life"). On final return to England worked as Fleetwood's School Attendance Officer, and retired at Wyre Bank, 25 The Esplanade Fleetwood. The gravestone at the Congregational (now United Reformed) Church in Garstang bears the inscription inter alia: "In loving memory of Cyril Hamer, fourth child of Rev. Eben. and Sarah Le Mare. Born at Salem South India. Nov 11 1880, died at Garstang Oct 18 1882. Also of Sallie (née Hamer) the beloved mother of the above born at Scorton Dec 18 1849, died at Fleetwood July 29 1913. Also Ebenezer, died May 12 1939, aged 90". There are also passages from the scriptures.

The Bombay Calendar & Directory 1880 gives the names of members of the London Missionary Society at Belgaum: Rev J G Hawker, Rev E Le Mare, Rev J Smith, Rev J Manhantappa, Rev P Siddalingappa. E Le Mare was not in the list in 1882.

A report from John Rylands library states the Rev. E Le Mare of Fleetwood contributed several books towards the reconstruction of the library of the university of Louvain after the first world war.

Ivor Herbert states on p174 of his book Red Rum that Ebenezer became a 'New Theologian' and as his son, Noel, put it 'My father got the sack'. The family returned to England and Ebenezer and his wife, who was a qualified teacher, started a little school in Fleetwood. But, Noel commented, as soon as parents knew his father was a New Theologian they began to take the children away, for it was heresy in those days not to believe in the Virgin Birth. The school closed and for a time Sarah kept a boarding-house. The family seems to have left India in 1886 or 1887; the photograph mentioned above was taken in 1886 and Noel was the first to be born in England, in 1887.

PHL has a photo of EL taken in his garden at Wyre Bank 25 The Esplanade Fleetwood on his 88th birthday in 1936.

1901 census: Congregational minister living at 52 Harris Street Fleetwood.

A photograph of Sarah records that she was a teacher, an artist (black and white drawing), a pianist and a singer. Also that she lost her health in India. The photograph gives the order of her children: Amy, Percy, Connie, Cyril (born in India) Ida (England) Harold (India) Noel, Margaret (England). A John Hamer, clerk and station master, lived at Wyersdale in Scorton Nether Township (Mannex & Co. 1851). Possibly he was Sarah's father.

38. Richard Le Mare, b. 21 Nov 1854, d. aft Jan 1918. Married 3 Dec 1882 in Malabar Church Bombay, Ophelia Driver #155, d. 19 ___. Richard and Ophelia had two sons and two daughters (JPC). Richard's brother, Ebenezer (42) was a missionary with the London Missionary Society in India and in his "Romance and Realities of Missionary Life" records returning via Bombay "to visit a brother in business there". Slater's 1903 Directory for Manchester records a Richard Le Mare as Resident Secretary of the English & Scottish Law Life Association, 18 Arcade Chambers

Slater's Directory 1898: Le Mare Richard Cobden Villas 13 Grove Road Heaton Chapel. Slater's 1903: Le Mare Richard resident secretary English & Scottish Law Life Association 18 Arcade Chambers St Mary's Gate.

This brother was married in Bombay so is likely to have been business there but is this the Richard Le Mare who was in insurance in Manchester? Did RL46 leave India and take the insurance post in Manchester? See also /bk/txt/JFDL165.

The Times of India Calendar and Bombay Directory 1882 shows under Local Residents: Le Mare, Richard, Assistant, Franjee Sands & Co; Fort (an area of Bombay).
Franjee Sands & Co were agents for Northern Assurance Co, Head office, 1 Moorgate London.

Retired to Glossop from Heaton Moor, formerly of 118 Sheffield Road Glossop.

Gertrude (#166, JFD Le M's widow) gave Richard Le Mare's (#34) certificate of the Freedom of the City of London and a framed engraving of the Revd George Burder to KMSL. Both are now with PHL at Allithwaite. Why Gertrude had the portrait of George Burder is not known. KMSL thought that he may have been an ancestor of Sarah Burden, Richard Le Mare's (#34) wife (#35), JFDL's grandmother, and that one of the names had been misspelt. However, it is clear from the marriage certificate of Richard and Sarah that her name was Burden and there is no evidence for a relationship with George Burder.

Ebenezer Le Mare (#42) records visiting a brother, who was in business in Bombay. The family were devout Congregationalists and Ebenezer was a missionary with the London Missionary Society in India. In 1803 George Burder became unpaid secretary of the L.M.S. (founded 1795) of the Congregational Church, and a founder of the British and Foreign Bible Society. Richard and Ophelia may have had the portrait in recognition of the work of George Burder, so that subsequently it came into the hands of their son. Possibly the portrait had belonged to Richard Le Mare (#34).

Harold J Le Mare recorded year of marriage as 1890 (?). MJW as 1892. Great grandmother of Merion John Warren 49 Prideaux Road Eastbourne BN21 2NE For details of Minnie's descendants see correspondence with MJW. Governess to issue of first marriage.

Minnie Le Mare travelled widely in Britain and Europe with her father and later with her husband, for whose children by his first wife she was governess. See her diaries transcribed by John Warren, her great grandson.

Minnie claimed that her ancestors were Huguenots from La Rochelle and that the family crest included a negro's head. Gordon Havelock Le Mare (#243) made a similar claim concerning the crest. Were the ancestors slave traders? This seems unlikely unless the Edict of Nantes permitted it.

One of the Robert Le Mares (see RL54) had a crest incorporating a mermaid with a comb and a glass, indicating a nautical ancestry. Possibly two branches of the family were nautical, perhaps indicating a connection with Isaac Le Maire of the Dutch East India Company (see notes on him) but he was from Amsterdam.

Sir Bernard Burke, Ulster King of Arms, in his book The General Armory of England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales (London, 1884) records:

Le Maire (London; David Le Maire, visit. London, 1563, son of James Le Maire, of Tournay) Ar. three Moors' heads couped ppr. Crest - A Moor's head couped ppr. Motto - Tempera te tempori. [ar. = argent or silver or white. ppr. = proper].

We have not traced our family back as far as 1563 and have no reason to suppose that we are descended from these Le Maires so seemingly it is unlikely that we can claim this crest or motto. It seems unlikely that we are descended from James Le Maire because our earliest recorded ancestors were lowly weavers who learnt their trade as apprentices.

Thus David Le Maire was the father of Sir Peter Le Maire who was knighted at Royston on 18 July 1624.

manuscript - 'Diary of a Tour in the Naga Hills, 1922-1923' by Henry Balfour

Caption: Entering the Mediterranean Sea aboard the Malwa

Medium: diaries

Date: 15.8.1922

Tues. 15th
Off Tangier, 7.30 a.m. Very fine & smooth. Dolphins very numerous. Tarifa Point 8.15 a.m. Gibraltar, 9.30 a.m. Went ashore for an hour with Mrs. E.M. Campbell. Found it very hot on shore & dusty. Sailed at about 1 p.m. Discovered that the Captain of the "Malwa", W.R. LeMare, was the boy I knew 50 years ago nearly, at Macclesfield. Both delighted to meet one another again. He insisted on my being transferred to his table for meals. We had a good talk about Macclesfield days & the Grammar School, etc. Hot at night & the ship vibrating badly (a characteristic of the "Malwa" which I had noted on the voyage to Australia in her in 1914, but which seems to have become more marked, making her very uncomfortable to travel in, especially in certain parts, e.g. my cabin, where the oscillation has 'nodes', as it were.) Apart from this vibration the "Malwa" is very nice & my cabin was excellent, being a corner one with 2 windows.

Arthur was educated Manchester Technical School: electrical engineering. Apprenticeship with Exide Battery Co. University of Manchester 1897; Lancashire Independent College (of the Independent or Congregational Church) studying for theology BA; ordained 1904. Minister of Nether Green Congregational Church Leeds. Resigned 1904 for teaching in Leeds Boys' Modern School; 1914 Bishops Stortford College; 1916 Sheriff School Rugby (not the "public" school); 1919 Leighton Park School Reading. In 1919 at Rugby joined the Society of Friends. Resigned from the Rugby school in summer of 1919 when asked to by the headmaster. The Rugby Observer reported that he sat down rather than stand and sing the national anthem on the king's birthday because he disagreed with continuation of conscription, the war against Russia and the terms of the armistice with Germany. 1923 appointed Warden of Walthamstow Educational Settlement. Councillor and Alderman in Walthamstow.

A governor of Sir George Monoux School, Walthamstow.

From the Old Monovian 1933: This year, Speech Day was celebrated on Thursday, October 26th, and it was again found necessary to divide the function and to hold the junior prize giving in the afternoon and the senior in the evening. There was not a seat vacant at either ceremony, the attendance being greater even than last year.

Once again Mr. P. Astins, E.C.C., Chairman of the School Governors, presided. In the afternoon he opened the proceedings by drawing attention to the progress the School had made in recent years, declaring that in many ways the Monoux School was "second to none." After the distribution of the prizes by Mrs. A. S. Le Mare, Mr. Le Mare gave an interesting talk on education. He defined education as "getting into touch with one's environment," and after describing some of the methods by which men had learnt to do this, he went on to say that the international situation showed how much still remained to be learnt. The close attention, which he received throughout from even the youngest present, showed how greatly his talk was enjoyed.

Retired 1937 to Kirkby Stephen. Hon. Librarian Free Library KS; Chief Billeting Officer in KS for children evacuated from industrial areas at start of war in 1939. Member of North Westmorland Rural Council.

A testimonial held by H Margaret Le M states:
"Alderman Arthur Stanway Le Mare is descended from a family of French Protestants who fled into exile after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685 and established themselves as silk-weavers in Spitalfields at the end of the 17th century. A junior member of the family migrated to Manchester about 1840 and there Mr Le Mare was born as in 1876, his father and grandfather being then in partnership as silk manufacturers in that city. He was educated at Manchester Technical School taking, in the last two years of school life, the course in Electrical Engineering and afterwards serving an apprenticeship with the Exide Battery Co. In 1897 Mr Le Mare entered Manchester University in order to prepare himself for the Christian ministry and later studied theology at Lancashire Independent Coll; he was minister of Nether Green Congregational Church Leeds for 4 years. The work of the ministry in one of the poorest districts of a great industrial city meant close touch with the lives of weekly wage earners and this experience provoked a study of social conditions which led Mr Le Mare to become a convinced socialist and a member of the Independent Labour Party; a decision which resulted in resignation from the pastorate and another change in profession. For the 16 years following he was an assistant master at boys' schools at Leeds, Bishop's Stortford, Rugby and Reading. During the period he spent at Rugby Mr Le Mare joined the Society of Friends and it was in 1923 that he came to Walthamstow as Superintendent of the Friends' Hall and Warden of the Educational Settlement in Greenleaf Road; a post which he still holds."

Children:
   LRAM; BLitt(Oxon). Taught music at Friends' School, Sidcot, Winscombe. Youth work in Ely. Lecturer in Education at Dudley College. Before second world war helped refugees escape Nazi Germany and Austria.

 Married 20 May 1903 in Rusholme Congregational Church, Wilfrid Spencer #111, b. ca 1880, baptized in Congregational Church, d. 1935 in Romiley Cheshire, buried in Southern Cemetery Manchester, occupation Mech Engineering Sales.
Wilfrid Spencer's mother was Emily Harris-Smith, daughter of Sarah Tuke of the family of Quaker tea merchants of York. William Tuke (1732-1822) founded The Retreat in 1792; it was opened in 1796. His work was continued by his son, Henry, and especially his grandson, Samuel, who with Godfrey Higgins, a York magistrate, were responsible for great improvements nationally in the treatment of mental disorders from about 1820. Also, William Tuke (1732-1822) first raised the idea in 1818 of establishing a boys' school in York for the sons of Friends (Quakers) who were not eligible for Ackworth School, near Pontefract. The origins of The Mount School date back to 1785 when wealthy York Quaker William Tuke and his wife, Esther, founded The Friends' Girls' School in Trinity Lane, off Micklegate.

With Pilkington Brothers Ltd he held a number of patents. EBL is also mentioned in The Land Called Me by E J Russell (George Allen & Unwin 1956).

The following is an extract from Cullet, Pilkington's magazine, Winter 1947-48, on EBL's retirement:

"The flow process of Plate Glass making, not only here but also in several of the American glass factories, remains as a permanent monument to his ability as a glassmaker, and there is scarcely any feature of Plate Glass making which does not carry the stamp of his technical ability and extreme thoroughness. But, great though these achievements are, it is E.B. Le Mare the man we shall always think of first, and remember, long after his achievements as a glass maker have been forgotten".

His son, the late Procter S Le Mare, had a portrait of EBL, in pencil by Harry Coller; this portrait passed to PSL's son Peter Robert Le Mare #14.

London Gazette: 2nd Lt to temp Lt 12 June 1916 (26940); Lt to acting Capt 28 May 1918 (30777); relinquished Acting Capt 15 June 1918 (30816).

i. Deryck Watts Le Mare #108, b. 1 Oct 1912 in Streatham, d. 11 May 1967 in Fowey and District Hospital, cremated 13 May 1967 in Penmount Crematorium Truro, occupation Director of Fisheries. Deryck was known as D. Married 1939 in Straits Settlements (living at 254, Upper Stephen road, Taiping), Gladys Keay #110, b. 29 Dec 1912, d. 28 Jun 1967 in Greenbank Hospital Plymouth, cremated 1 Jul 1967 in Penmount Crematorium Truro.

D's mother, Ethel Jane Coller, was the daughter of Jane Watts, sister of Sir Philip Watts KCB, FRS, naval architect. Her brother Frederick Ernest Watts Coller was manager of Armstrong-Whitworth's shipyard, of which Watts was a director.

Watts married in 1875 Elise Isabelle, daughter of Chevalier Gustave Simoneau de St Omer, of Brussels. His wife and his two daughters survived him. He died of pneumonia at his residence, 4 Hans Crescent, Chelsea, London, on 15 March 1926 and was buried in Brompton cemetery. He died of pneumonia at his residence, 4 Hans Crescent, Chelsea, London, on 15 March 1926 and was buried in Brompton cemetery. (from Oxford Dictionary of National Biography).

deryck was educated at, 1922-27, Royal Grammar School, Newcastle-upon-Tyne. 1927-1931 Manchester GS. 1931 Somerset Thornhill Scholarship (Nat.Sci.) Brasenose College Oxford. 1934 MA C11 Zoology; BSc. Awarded: 1) Senior Hulme Research Scholarship, Oxford: £600 for four years; 2) Brasenose College Book Prize; 3) Naples Biological Scholarship, Oxford: one year; 4) Colonial Office Veterinary Scholarship which was declined on acceptance of the Naples Scholarship. 1934-5 at Stazione Zoologica, Naples. 1935-37 Department of Zoology and Comparative Anatomy, Oxford. 1936 appointed 1) Demonstrator in the Department 2) Lecturer and Tutor of St John's Oxford 3) Lecturer to the WEA, Oxfordshire. Nov 1937 appointed Assistant to the Director of Fisheries, Straits Settlements March 1938 arrived Singapore. 1939 married Gladys Keay. 1939-45; acting sub-lieutenant Straits Settlements Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve 1939 (Far Eastern Volunteers web-site); Special Duties: Captain, Intelligence Corps (Dispatches: London Gazette 10 Sep 1946 p4576); Prisoner of War 1942-45. Gladys mentions in her report that D hoped, if he got to Java, that he could join the Royal Navy. 1 Feb. 1942 he and Gladys left Singapore in search of dried fish on Dutch islands. 15 Feb Singapore taken by Japanese so D stayed on Singkape while Gladys left for UK. 24 Feb 1942 Lt Intelligence Corps. March 1942 D member of 43 Special Mission in West Java under Laurens van der Post; D taken prisoner of war 3 August 1942. In his debriefing report under Sabotage D stated "Drifters and mining equipment broken up in Omine-Machi coal mine, Japan. Explosive materials destroyed in the same mine". He also noted that approx. 5 miles N.W. of Omine railway station is a large ammunition and petrol dump in old mine workings.

Returned to Malaya 1947; March 1948 Director of Fisheries, Federation of Malaya and Singapore, back-dated to Aug 1947. Nov 1948 seconded for special duties connected with the Malayan Emergency. In Oct-Nov 1955 he and Gladys travelled to England by sea bringing their yacht, Chencharu, as deck cargo. Chencharu had been built in Malaya to D's design. 1956 awarded Silver Medal by HM King Frederik IX of Denmark for assistance to the Galathea Expedition 1950-52, a Danish world-wide deep sea expedition. 1957 Awarded Companion of the Imperial Service Order for contribution to development of Fisheries in the Federation. 18 Aug 1957 left Malaya in accordance with the policy of Malayization of the Public Service. On return to UK DWL worked with the White Fish Authority. He and Gladys lived at Brockham Warren, Surrey, until retirement, about 1962, to Lescrow Hay, Fowey, where for a time D cultivated oysters.

DWL joined the Regiment of Major W R Busby (now Lt Col, MBE MC) in Java in May 1942 after, as he said in a letter to the Colonial Office 3 May 1971, D had fought a single handed guerrilla operation for six months in Malaya, and Java". D was in solitary confinement and publicly humiliated by the Japanese but later served as an attached officer (Cpt) with Busby until Oct 42 when they were taken to Japan, where D was put in charge of 30 men working in a coal mine. D looked after his men better than any other officer Busby had known. Throughout 3½ years D continued to harass the Japanese whenever an opportunity arose. Busby recommended that D be decorated for courage and bravery; he was disappointed when D was awarded only a Mention in Dispatches.

A favourite quotation of D was from the Mock Turtle's song in Alice's Adventures in Wonderland:

"What matters it how far we go?" his scaly friend replied. "There is another shore, you know, upon the other side."

Lady Jean Medawar wrote to PHL on 25 Nov 1990: I remember Deryck as a sensible, hard working member of the zoology class, good at marine biology, friendly, and almost always with Gladys Keay. His and my Peter's interests weren't specially close, so we didn't meet much outside the labs - but I did join a party in that cottage on the Menai Straits and enjoyed it.

W R Busby wrote to PHL on 12 May 1991: Deryck was a personal friend of mine. He was attached to my Battery, 95 Light Anti Aircraft RA from May 42 in Java until Nov 45 in No 1 Allied P.W. Camp Hiroshima. We remained friends until he died in 67. He was a great loss. He was a wonderful fearless officer, totally unselfish, and an outstanding commander of men. He served under me. In a telephone conversation on 18 May Walter Busby said that D was also a very good linguist - French German Italian Cantonese and Japanese. Initially D was resented by other officers because they were from England and D had come in via the Malayan army. In 1951 D wrote to Busby to suggest that he transfer to the Malayan army from the British army; Busby much appreciated this but was unable to accept. Busby drafted a book on his experiences but he had difficulty with a ghost writer and publishers so it was not published.

Canon Rupert Godfrey wrote on 17 May 1991: D and I were fellow inmates of Fukuoka Camp Six from Nov 1942 to June 1943 when I was transferred to Zentsuji camp. D was one of about six prisoners brought in to Glodok camp in Batavia some weeks after the surrender and, as you say, lodged in solitary confinement. We were a little suspicious of them at first because it was thought that one of them was a stool pigeon planted by the Japs. I believe D had been captured with Laurens van der Post but I may be wrong. We were both on the hell ship Dai Nichi Maru which left Java on 21 Oct and landed at Mogi about 25 Nov. The draft which were taken from Mogi to Fukuoka were all, except D, members of 48th Light AA which had been sent off from Glasgow to Singapore just days before the war in the Far East began. We never got there but were dropped off in Java instead. I was the regimental padre. The winter of 1942 was not particularly cold but, coming straight from the tropics and with no warm clothing, it played havoc with nearly everybody's health and many there were who died of dysentery and pneumonia. I think D was probably one of the fittest and I am glad to know that Major (as he then was) Busby, the Camp CO officially recorded his services. Being in charge of coal mine shifts was no enviable task. I also remember that D - like me an Oxford graduate - took the trouble during those months to learn the Japanese language and this would have enabled him to harass the Japanese at their own game. I have group photos of the officer POWs and the mining authorities given us by the Japs which shows us all in our motley attire at that time.

Letter from H.M. Burkill OBE, 10 June 1991. Met D in Malaya/Singapore before and after the war. After the war D shared quarters with Eric Holttum, Director of the Botanic Gardens. Burkill met D and G at the Director's house in the Gardens. Another of the close friends and Government Civil Servants was Michael Tweedie, Director of the Raffles Museum.

Letter from Sir Laurens van der Post CBE, 18 September 1995 in response to a letter enquiring about D's activities in Java. L v d P wrote an account of his captivity in Java in The Night of the New Moon.

"Of course I knew Deryck Le Mare and remember him extremely well, but I do not think that I can add anything to which you would not have ready access as a member of the family.

He was a distinguished civil servant, and then of course volunteered for active service in the War, and was captured with some other members of my unit when I had already walked into an ambush myself. He was briefly one of my officers in Java and an extremely good one at that.

I just saw him once or twice after the war, and very much regretted that he died--I believe--much too young with still a great deal to offer".

L v d P states that he had already walked into an ambush when D was captured. However v d P states in Who's Who and elsewhere that he was a POW during 1943-45. Busby and Godfrey state that D was captured in 1942 and was moved to Japan in November 1942. Although there is no doubt that v d P knew D, he seemed not to know when D was captured. JDF Jones, biographer of L v d P, states "Time after time, the storyteller's tales about himself were inaccurate, embellished, exaggerated, distorted or invented. Put more bluntly he was a constant liar". (The Guardian, 22 Sep 2001).

"Storyteller: the many lives of Laurens van der Post" by J D F Jones contains in Chapter 2 an account of Special Mission 43, mentioning Lieut. Lemaire. Jones states that van der Post was not engaged in guerrilla fighting; possibly the remaining members were after LvdP was captured. Jones raises a number of doubts about LvdP's activities.

Gladys was educated, 1934, MA Oxon Cl 1 Zoology; St Hugh's. Research on the seasonal occurrence of harvest mites (Trombicula autumnalis) on voles and mice near Oxford (Parasitology, 28, 110-114, 1936) and the ecology of the harvest mite in the British Isles (J. of Animal Ecology, 6, 23-35, 1937). Taught in South Africa until marriage to D W Le Mare in Singapore in 1939. Founder member and secretary of the Malayan Nature Society and first editor of the Malayan Nature Journal 1940-. (Correspondence with Lim Swee Yian <sweeyianlim@yahoo.com> 8/9 Nov 2009 and subsequently). Gladys's work for the Malayan Nature Society is recorded in the 70th anniversary editions of the Malaysian Naturalist, September 2010, and in Birding Asia, June 2010.
Notes from Gladys's account of her departure from Malaya in 1942:

Deryck had instructions to investigate the possibility of collecting stores of dried fish in the Dutch islands, and running the blockade of Singapore if necessary. D and G left Singapore harbour on Sun 1 Feb 1942. With them were Mr Taylor, Deputy Food Controller, S'pore and Fanny, a Chinese girl wishing to escape Malaya and return home. Mr T had orders to seek supplies of charcoal. They sailed in the Kurau, a Fisheries Dept boat designed by D. They were unable to recruit a crew but the boat could be sailed single handed for a short time. They called at Pulau Sambu and then sailed, via Pulau Bulau where they took on a crew, to Penuba and Singkap where a ship was expected to evacuate the tin miners and their families. D decided G should go on it. D remained on Singkap. By then Japanese had landed on Singapore Island. The ship sailed to Batavia (now Jakarta) where G went aboard the Planceus sailing for Colombo and Bombay where she was told she may have to wait for months for a passage to UK. After making an abortive attempt to get a job she was instructed after ten days to go to the docks to board the Strathnaver. They sailed, without convoy, via Cape Town, to Glasgow where they arrived on 23 April 1942.

In England during the rest of wartime G worked with Professor Alan Drury at the Medical Research Council's blood drying unit in Cambridge. She shared a house with Sheila, first wife of E J H Corner, and their children; he was assistant director, Gardens Dept, Straits Settlements, and during the occupation of Singapore by the Japanese from 1942 was a 'civil internee' and continued to work in the Botanic Gardens under Japanese supervision. He returned to England but was divorced in 1952 and in the following year married his daughter's nanny (see entry in Dictionary of National Biography).

G and D retired to Orchard Lodge Golant Fowey where G was a Red Cross worker, Welfare Officer for the Care of the Disabled Club and leader of a team which she founded in the canteen at St Lawrence's Hospital Bodmin.

ii. Kathleen Margaret Shelly Le Mare #109, b. 9 Jul 1915 in 39 Arragon Gardens Streatham, d. 11 Dec 1983 in 7 Wandales Lane Natland Cumbria, buried in Lancaster & Morecambe Crematorium, occupation Primary school education. Known as K.

Cause of death: 1a. Carcinomatosis; b. Carcinoma of bladder. Certified by J.R. Adams, B.M.

K was educated at Newcastle Central High School; Malvern Girls College (1929-1932) and Froebel Educational Institute Roehampton (1932-36). Taught at Kingsmoor School Glossop (1936-39); Wyggeston Grammar School for Girls (1939-43), Fresham Heights School (1943-60) and Newcastle where she was Headmistress of Westfield Junior School 1960-1974. At Fresham the Govenors claimed they had lost confidence in her and she was asked to resign. They refused to give their reasons so she refused to resign and said they would have to sack her. The parents supported her and called a protest meeting to move a vote of no confidence in the Governors. In a booklet entitled The Rothley Trust and the Tyneside Voluntary Movement 1959-1980 by J D Long are the following comments:

p7 "For the post of headmistress the Governors had interviewed and appointed Miss Kathleen Le Mare, previously of Fresham Heights School, which had a high reputation. The intention was that she should become headmistress of the senior school once it was established. Meanwhile she would run Westfield. Kathleen Le Mare's contribution at this period of uncertainty to what may be termed the credibility factor cannot be over-estimated. Her dazzling personality seemed to those who heard her address, in May 1960, a crowded Association meeting, the very embodiment of their hopes, and served as a counterpart to T N Douthwaite who, composed, confident and reassuring, was at the centre of things."
A financial statement was sought, and Kathleen Le Mare was invited to the Campbell home to meet the Trustees. Oakfield House was purchased and in September 1962 took its first pupils under Mary Ellenby, Kathleen Le Mare having expressed the wish to remain headmistress of the junior school. By the time Mungo Campbell felt able to hand over the chair in 1977, Westfield School had 392 pupils (244 senior and 148 junior) and had unobtrusively taken its place among the independent schools of the area.

She retired August 1974 and moved to Natland Cumbria. After retirement she joined the Society of Friends and attended Preston Patrick Meeting. With Margaret H (#8) and H Margaret (#105) she revived the family history, writing to many members of the family she found listed in UK telephone directories, and helped organize family gatherings held at Banbury.

57. Dorothy Le Mare #203, b. 1881, d. 1970.

Did not marry (letter from Barbara Gill-Gibson #206 dated 2 June 1998). Adopted a boy aged 6, John Tester, and changed his name to Alistair Le Mare. She said the adoption was her war effort. Dorothy left Le Mare possessions to Alistair so that they have passed out of the Le Mare family.

   ii. John David Le Mare #485, b. 28 Nov 1916 in Lillooet BC, baptized 1916 in Lillooet BC, d. 23 Jul 1943 in air battle over Crete, occupation Forestry engineer.

Married 1942 in Fleetwood, England, Jean Stevenson #486, his first cousin, (daughter of James L Stevenson #595 and Margaret Le Mare #482). Of Fleetwood (Bruce Cockburn by e-mail to Shirley Ingham).

Graeme stated that John was born in Lytton BC.

The following information was received by Procter Le Mare (copy with Peter LeMare) from Janet Mason, Research Officer, BC Geographical Names Office (file:10280-60 (92 L/5) dated December 20, 1996) concerning Le Mare Lake:

Adopted 6 April 1950 on 92/NW, as labelled on BC map 2C, 1948 and early forestry maps.

"Slim" Le Mare was a forestry engineering student at UBC in the late ’30s/early 40’s. During the summer months he worked for BC Forest Service on their timber inventory crews. One summer (1939?) he worked in the Quatsino Sound area, and an unnamed lake was given the name "Le Mare Lake" after Slim. Within a few days of Pearl Harbour, Slim walked out of his classroom at UBC and enlisted in the Army; he was killed overseas. (Information provided July 1989, as relayed to R.K.Vivian by UBC Professor T.G.Wright, Slim LeMare's instructor in 1941.) Given name not provided. (file C.1.49) Correct spelling and form is "LaMare" (August 1989 telephone call from UBC Prof. Thomas Wright).

NOTE: RCAF Flying Officer John D. Le Mare, SJ9643, enlisted at Duncan and killed 23 July 1943, is identified on Department of Veterans Affairs lists (BC Casualty List p.127). No Army fatalities with this name, and no fatalities named LaMare, enlisted in British Columbia.

Le Mare Lake is at approx. 51°N128°W. It is described on the internet at www.island.net/~rdldr/LeMareLk.html.

JOHN DAVID LeMARE

In August, 1943, R.C.A.F. Headquarters announced that Flying Officer John David LeMare was missing after an operational flight; and in February, 1944, it was reported that he was presumed dead.

Flying Officer LeMare was born at Lytton, B.C., in 1916. He received his high school education at Courtenay, Vancouver Island, and graduated in forest engineering from the University of British Columbia in 1940. Prior to and during his studies at the university he was employed in various capacities in logging operations where he showed considerable skill and aptitude in handling mechanical equipment.

From 1938 until he enlisted Flying Officer LeMare was employed by the British Columbia Forest Service, and during this employment he was given responsibilities in respect to the North Shore Survey.

He is survived by his wife in Liverpool, England; and by his mother and father in British Columbia. Sincere sympathy is extended to relatives and friends in their loss and bereavement.

60. Harold Huguenot Le Mare #483, b. 7 Nov 1885 in Vizajapatam India, d. 11 Dec 1976 in S Pasadena Ca USA, buried in Forest Lawn Glendale Ca, occupation CC Clerk commercial; Department manager.

Married 7 Mar 1914 in Kamloops BC Canada, Olina Andrina Amble #484, b. 23 Nov 1890 in Grand Forks N Dakota, d. 16 Mar 1976 in S Pasadena Ca USA, buried in Forest Lawn Glendale Ca. Father: Butler Amble Mother: Kari Bottolfsdotter, of Norwegian extraction; this information was provided by Lee Whitman in a telephone conversation on 7 October 1995.

Harold left home, Mount Trescomb, Fleetwood, for Canada in 1906. Moved to Grand Forks, N. Dakota and later to Los Angeles and S. Pasadena, Ca. In California he was Manager of the Parts Dept of Kelite Corp. In a phone call on 9 Feb 1992 Lee Whitman (#606) said that Harold changed his name to Lemaire when he settled in USA. However, Evelyn Lemaire, formerly Evelyn Waller #774, wife of Vernon Vincent Lemaire, son of Harold Huguenot, said in a letter dated 28 Feb 1992 that when Harold went to Canada the man who made out his homestead papers misspelled the name. Harold found it almost impossible to correct it. He decided it didn't matter so used the new spelling thereafter. Evelyn's explanation is supported by an Canadian Pacific insurance policy issued to Harold in Vancouver dated 1st October 1913, found by Lee Whitman in October 1996. This shows Lemaire for Harold and his brother Percy who was to be beneficiary. However, Percy kept his name as Le Mare throughout his life.

A printed notice of a social evening organized by the Amalgamated Union of Co-operative Employees at Fleetwood on 9 Nov 1904 announced 'Harold Le-Mare, Humorist, in his latest songs'. He would have had his 19th birthday two days before the social.

With a letter dated 26 Dec 1995 Lee Whitman sent a copy of a pencil drawing by HHL, "An Italian Peasant Boy", for which he won first prize for a black and white drawing by a 12 year old in 1897, when he was living in Fleetwood.

In a telephone conversation on 13 April 1997 Lee Whitman said that Harold was a freight handler with Canadian Pacific Railways until he and his wife Olina moved to Grand Forks to help her parents, who immigrated from Sweden, on their homestead and farm. The parents left the farm to Olina and Harold. They lived on the farm, which was about four miles south of Grand Forks, during the summer but moved into Grand Forks during the winter so that the children could go to school there.

1901 census: commercial clerk working at home 52 Harris Street Fleetwood.

61. Noel Hamer Le Mare #152, b. 18 Dec 1887 in Barton on Irwell, Lancashire, d. 7 Oct 1980, occupation Civil engineer. Married 8 Nov 1919, Bertha Baucher #193, b. 19 Mar 1894 in Liverpool, d. 17 Sep 1967.

Notes from obituaries in the Daily Telegraph and the Times: Noel started work at 12 in the engineering shop of a Fleetwood trawler company and went to sea at 14; he took his chief engineer's ticket six years later. He served with several shipping companies and was rescued after his ship was torpedoed during the 1914-18 war. Came ashore in 1919 when he married. In 1922 he formed a partnership to found a civil engineering company, Norwest Construction Ltd, which became Norwest Holst plc; he was President of the company. His firm built Heysham Harbour and the open-air swimming pool at Grange-over-Sands. During the 1939-45 war he was involved with building the half-mile long jetty for oil tankers at Heysham and the "Mulberry" harbour used for the invasion of Europe. He owned horses and raced at Aintree (where his horse, Red Rum, won the Grand National three times and was second twice), Cartmel and elsewhere. An account of Red Rum, with many references to Noel Le Mare, is given in Red Rum by Ivor Herbert (1977: Arrow Books, London). A videotape with the same title was published by the Pickwick Group Ltd in 1992; this includes and interview with Noel. Red Rum died 18 October 1995, aged 30; buried near the winning post on Aintree racecourse. Red Rum was on an Isle of Man stamp; Noel lived on the island for some time.

Ralph joined the Artists' Rifles (28th London) 10 Aug 1914. France 26 Dec 1914. Commissioned 2nd Lieut. March 1915 in 87th The Royal Irish Fusiliers. In nearly all engagements with the Regiment in the 4th Division in France until 1917. Then transferred to 4th King's African Rifles in German East Africa Campaign until the end of the war. Twice mentioned in despatches. Gazetted out with rank of Captain.

Served in Colonial Service. R Le Mare was Junior Warden & Acting Secretary, Northern Nigeria Lodge No 3325 Masonic Hall Kaduna 1927-8. This latter information was in the Business Agenda for 10 June 1927 found in a copy of Mrs Beaton's Cookery Book which belonged to the mother of Ian Carruthers of Carlisle. Ian's father, Robert Carruthers, was Superintendent of Arts and Crafts in Northern Nigeria. Ian is a friend of Barbara Jo Kirke, formerly a friend of Kathleen M S Le Mare (1915-1983, #109) at Preston Patrick Friends' Meeting.

He is mentioned in a British report to the League of Nations to have left Palestine where he was Senior Assistant Treasurer and was appointed Accountant, Nigeria.

Notes from J S Le Mare (#275) dated 8 Jan 1995: Ralph served in Colonial Service in Palestine in late 1940s. Married Gweth who was killed soon after in a road accident; Ralph was badly hurt and bore a large facial scar thereafter. Later transferred to Nigeria and worked in the North and in Lagos where he was in the Treasury. On return to UK he was secretary of Addington Golf Club and later Willingdon Golf Club near Eastbourne.

Margaret's work for the community was via the MCA. A Proclamation of the City of San Marino states that she was an active MCA member and volunteer for more than 60 years, beginning in Grand Forks, North Dakota, and since 1950 at the South Pasadena - San Marino MCA. She assumed directorship of the Youth Employment Service in 1968 and served in that capacity for 25 years, providing employment to thousands of young people. She was elected to the Board of Managers in 1958 and was Secretary for 23 years. She was a fund raiser during 35 years and in 1988 chaired the Current Support Campaign; active membership of the Program, Wellness and Aquatics Committees; President of the MCA's Women's Club. All this and her leadership of the Youth Employment Service led to her being named in 1988 to the MCA Golden Book of Distinguished Service, the highest honour accorded to volunteers in the MCA of Metropolitan Los Angeles. A similar Proclamation was made by the City of South Pasadena.

The undertakers who were responsible for the funeral have an arrangement that for every casket (coffin) made the Forest Department will plant a redwood tree in memory of the individual; a tree in memory of Margaret has been planted in Washington state.

In her final years she suffered from Parkinson's Disease.
